

In the Hospital

Baseline

- Computer randomly assigns your child to Option A or Option B

- Study team will interview you about your child's medical history

- Brain MRI/MRA scan might be repeated **

- Blood Sample

- Children in Option A will start steroids

24 hours after study enrollment

Children in Option B may start on steroids if their disease has gotten worse

- If your child is taking steroids, the study team will ask you questions about steroid side effects *

5 days post stroke/TIA

- Brain MRI/MRA scan will be repeated **

5 days post start of steroid treatment*

- If your child is taking steroids, the study team will ask you questions about steroid side effects *

In Person Visit or Phone/Video Visit

1 month

In person & Required

- Brain MRI/MRA scan
- Blood Sample

- If your child is taking steroids, the study team will review the medication diary with you at the visit. Don't forget to bring it!*

Finish full steroid treatment within the 1 and 6 month window*

6 months

In person or Video

- Study team will interview you about your child's recovery

- If your child is taking steroids, the study team will review the medication diary with you at the visit. Don't forget to bring it!*

12months

In person or Video

- Study team will interview you about your child's recovery

If Brain MRI/MRA Scans are not performed clinically, they will be performed as a research scan.

*only applies to patients who receive steroid treatment required in-person visit